

SENATE TO RUSH
SECOND DEFENSE
BILL TO HOUSE

Navy Measure to Pass
Today; Army Bill is Voted, 74 to 0

Washington, May 23.—(AP)—The Senate approved the $147,756,728 navy appropriations bill today, hastening the administration's extraordinary national defense program far toward final congressional action.

The roll call vote was unanimous, 78 to 0.

Washington, May 23.—(AP)—President Roosevelt will discuss defense conditions and needs in a "fireside chat" to be broadcast Sunday night.

In announcing his decision to make the radio address at 8:30 p. m. Central Standard time, Stephen Early, presidential secretary told newsmen it would be a "straight forward and factual report from the government to the people."

Senate Speeds Action
The Senate, out to duplicate quick action on army funds, rushed approval today for the navy's share of the record making $3,297,011,352 peacetime defense program.

The $147,756,728 navy bill was called up for debate, and leaders predicted a speedy decision, perhaps rivaling the five hour drive army measure through yesterday by a 74 to 0 vote.

The tenor of Senate feeling was indicated by Chairman Pittman (D-Ne.) of the foreign relations committee after the army bill was passed.

"That's notice to the world," he said, "that we will be able to finish anything they start."

With approval of the navy bill unquestioned, the nation's armed forces headed toward an unparalleled expansion of air strength—the most emphasized feature of the preparedness campaign.

Analysis of the $3,297,011,352 defense legislation showed that about one fourth of the money will

House Committee
Seeks Conference
With Gov. Horner

BULLETIN
Springfield, Ill., May 23.—(AP)—The House economy committee today summoned William W. Hart, chairman, and Joseph E. Knight, secretary of the Illinois Commerce Commission, to appear next Monday evening with commission payroll lists and expense accounts.

Springfield, Ill., May 23.—(AP)—The House economy committee today awaited a reply from Governor Horner to its request for a conference with the chief executive on old age pension financing.

Told by the governor's physician that Horner has recovered from his long illness sufficiently to receive visitors, Rep. Clinton Searle (R-Rock Island), committee chairman, sent a letter to the governor's secretary asking for an appointment early next week.

Executive aides said they did not know whether Horner would consent to meet the Republican-controlled committee, which was criticized yesterday by Rep. Joseph Sam Perry (D-Wheaton), Horner administration supporter, for "wasting more money than they'll ever find in economies."

Finance Director Samuel L. Nudelman also scored the Searle committee in a statement, charging the chairman had refused to accept a budgetary estimate because "it is obvious that Mr. Searle feared that my statement, which he refused to hear, would discredit his so-called 'report in advance'."

Nudelman referred to Searle's partial report to the legislature in which the committee chairman said "we have been unable to pin him (Nudelman) down to any exact figures about state finances."

Searle said he had asked for an appointment with Horner for next Monday or Tuesday.

Peoria Tragedy

Peoria, Ill., May 23.—(AP)—Roy Ted Woodruff was the father of six children himself so the thoughts of his own loved ones sped his actions to snatch three-year-old Patrick James Whalen from the path of a speeding passenger train.

Attracted by a woman's scream and the locomotive's warning whistle Woodruff, 39, dashed up a steep embankment at Galena road on the outskirts of Peoria last night and grabbed the child as the north-bound Rock Island train thundered down on him.

But the locomotive struck Woodruff as he prepared to leap from the tracks with the child huddled in his arms. Woodruff was killed instantly. The child died enroute to a hospital.

LEGION CAT COMMITTEE
During the progress of the tag program sponsored by Dixon post, No. 12, American Legion at the quarters in the Hotel Dixon building last evening, a stray female cat wandered into the club rooms. Briefly reviewing the surroundings and paying little attention to activities, the feline selected a well upholstered chair as a resting place. Only slight notice was taken of the visitor until some time afterward, when one of the Legionnaires discovered five tiny coal black kittens in the chair. Promptly, a brief business session was called with the mother tabby being the principal subject of discussion and J. Burton Woodruff was unanimously selected to head the cat welfare committee.

ASPHYXIATED
Mrs. J. L. Johnson, 81 years old, of DeKalb, was found dead in a bed room of her home Wednesday by her daughter, Mrs. Carl Swanson of DeKalb. Mr. Johnson, who is 82, was found in the kitchen, overcome by escaping gas fumes. He had disconnected the gas stove in the kitchen to repair the floor, but had failed to shut off the gas. DeKalb firemen worked for more than an hour in an attempt to revive Mrs. Johnson.

Last Program for Milk
Handlers Held Last Eve

Approximately 75 milk plant owners, operators and employees met at the Hotel Nachusa last evening for the third and concluding program arranged by the state Department of Public Health for the promotion of better processing, increase of sales and use of safe milk. Towns represented included Dixon, Princeton, Mendota, Sterling, Rock Falls, Rockford, Freeport, DeKalb and nearby points.

P. N. Hanger of the department of public health, presided during the program, which was preceded by a dinner. Harry W. Horn of the University of Illinois spoke on "Milk Plant Lighting" and in absence of Dr. H. A. Ruehe of the university staff, one of his assistants discussed the subject "The Dairy Industry Outlook."

Additional meetings will probably be held in late fall.

Member of Parliament Arrested in Britain's Fight on 'Fifth Column'

London, May 23.—(AP)—The arrest of Captain Archibald H. M. Ramsay, Conservative member of parliament, by direction of the home secretary was announced today by the speaker of the House of Commons.

Ramsay, a veteran of the World War, was detained in Brixton prison as the government carried out a round up of persons suspected as "fifth columnists."

At the same time a police guard was clamped on headquarters of the British Union, the British fascist organization headed by Sir Oswald Mosley.

Ramsay, of a well known military family, long had been regarded as fascist, particularly on the score of anti-Semitism.

$40 PENSION ACT
VIRTUALLY SURE
BEFORE JUNE 1st

Both Houses of State's Legislature Have Enacted Such Bills

Springfield, Ill., May 23.—(AP)—Enactment of a $40 pension bill was virtually assured today as the Illinois senate unanimously passed the bill raising the maximum monthly old age assistance award from $30 to $40 and advanced a similar bill passed yesterday by the house.

Legislators will decide next week which of the two bills—practically identical in form—will be enacted finally and some administration leaders privately predicted the special session would then be adjourned. The Ward bill was sent to the house.

Also passed by the senate and sent to the house was the bill sponsored by Harold G. Ward of Chicago, senate Democratic floor leader, to appropriate an additional $25,200,000 to cover the increased pension cost.

Ward said the state would be able to raise its share of $2,500,000 without enacting new or added taxes by economizing on state expenditures. The remainder of the appropriation would be contributed by the federal government.

Finance Director S. L. Nudelman in a statement recommended that the assembly defer any plans for financing the pension increase until the next regular legislature meets in January, 1941. Nudelman estimated that even with the increased pension burden the state's treasury balance would be $1,584,000 on January 1.

Vote Unanimous
The vote was unanimous for the Ward bill but Republican legislators, led by Senator Earl B. Searcy of Springfield, said only about three per cent of the state's 140,000 old age pensioners would be benefited by the boost.

Searcy accused the Democratic administration of "false representation" in taking credit for old age pension increases. He asserted that pensioners now receiving less than the maximum of $30 a month will not get any increases under the $40 law. The average old age pension award now is $20 monthly.

Probability that Ward's bill would be chosen for final passage and signature by Governor Horner was seen when it was discovered that the emergency clause was omitted by error from the house bill. Ward's bill contains the emergency clause which permits the pension increase to become effective.

Widow of Senator
Wright Will Take
Her Dower Rights

Declining to serve as one of the three executors named in the will of her late husband, former State Senator Harry G. Wright, Mrs. Harriet A. Wright of DeKalb has renounced the will and elected to take her statutory share of the estate.

The will left the major portion of Wright's estate, valued at more than $250,000, to the University of Illinois for the creation of an endowment bearing his name and that of his widow. Mrs. Wright received nothing in the will which provided for bequests to several brothers, sisters and nieces and nephews. She is represented by the Chicago firm of Osborne, Kine and Gurren.

Although the two other executors named in the will, R. F. McCormick, DeKalb bank president, and Attorney Harry D. Fisk, DeKalb lawyer, refused to comment, it is thought that Mrs. Wright's renunciation, which will permit her to take one-half of the estate, will leave little for the University of Illinois endowment after the individual bequests are fulfilled.

Wright died on April 17 in Holland, Pa., of a heart attack while on a tour of eastern meat packing plants in company with a group of Chicago packing firm executives. The will was admitted for probate late Tuesday in the DeKalb county court of Judge H. W. McEwen.

Home Secretary Sir John Anderson assured the house that steps have been taken to safeguard England from the entry of "fifth columnists" as refugees.

He said special measures have been taken to increase the arms available to police for their "own protection."

Ordinarily, British police carry only a truncheon, with no firearms except in emergencies.

Sir John also announced the expulsion of 167 members of the outlawed Irish Republican Army under the act to prevent violence.

(By The Associated Press)
The German blitzkrieg, smashing at 500,000 to 1,000,000 "pocketed" allied troops in Belgium and northern France today recaptured Abbeville, 12 miles from the English channel and Nazi authorities said it was "quite probable" they had also taken the vital channel port of Boulogne (H4).

Boulogne is just 26 miles across the straits of Dover from Folkestone, England.

The Germans admitted, however, that the "real battle" against England could not begin until the strategic "pocket" in Belgium and northern France—extending from Abbeville to Ostend (16)—had been crushed.

"In view of the strong forces encircled there, it will not be done without heavy fighting," said DNE, the official German news agency.

Prime Minister Winston Churchill, in a two minute address to the house of commons, announced the fall of Abbeville.

"This country is in fearful danger," declared Alfred Duff Cooper, British minister of information.

French reports yesterday said the Germans had been "chased out" of Abbeville, but once again the Nazi onslaught has broken through to the sea.

British Apprehension
Paris, however, gave a more hopeful picture of the conflict. There it was reported that the French armies, swiftly reorganized, were fighting with new fury to reunite their northern and central armies and chop off the long, sharp spearhead which the Germans have driven through northern France to the sea.

Simultaneously Clement R. Attlee, deputy leader in the House of Commons, disclosed that the governments of both Britain and Ireland were apprehensively "alive to the possibilities" of an invasion through Ireland.

As emphasized by Churchill, the threat of a Nazi invasion was apparently becoming hourly more grave.

Possibly as a preparation for this heralded next blow in Hitler's "total war" scheme, power diving Stuka bombers and wasp-like German speedboats smashed at channel communications.

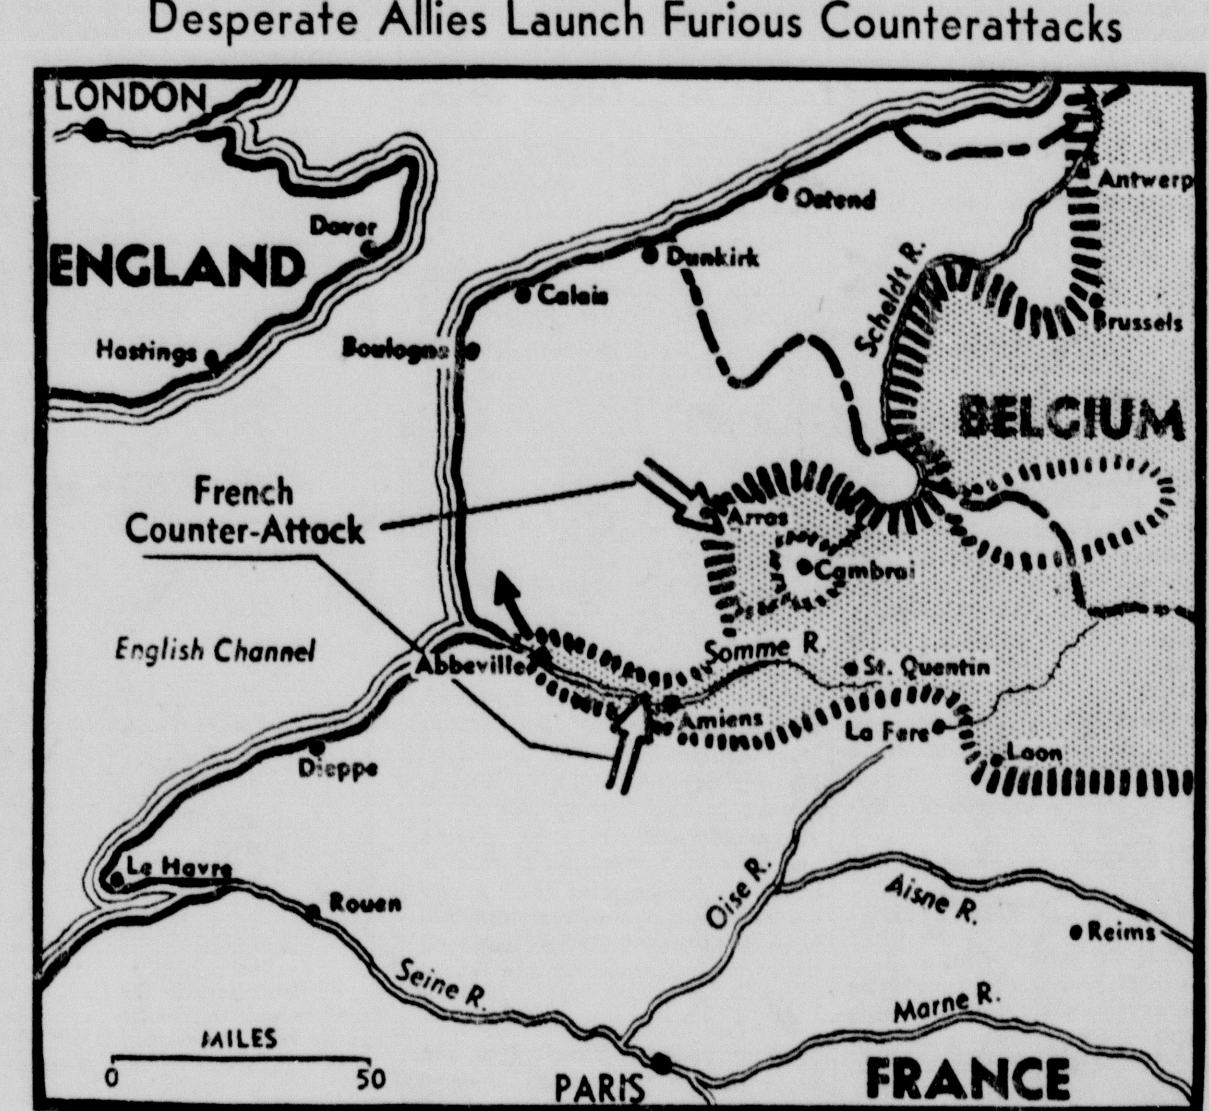

Meanwhile, Premier Mussolini summoned the Italian supreme defense council into session, perhaps auguring the long-awaited Italian decision to enter the war.

Count Galeazzo Ciano, Il Duce's No. 1 man and foreign minister, who has been inspecting Italian-held Albania, left for the Yugoslav border—focal tension point where Yugoslav troops have long been massed to meet any Italian invasion.

Gap Between Two Armies
A German break through in the fierce fighting for control of English Channel ports today imperilled communications between 550,000 allied troops "pocketed" in northern France and 1,000,000 French soldiers to the south.

"There is a gap between the two armies," a British spokesman admitted. "The allied situation on the eastern front is extremely grave."

McHenry Dairy Is Burned; Probe by State Is Started

McHenry, Ill., May 23.—(AP)—The McHenry dairy, a small retail and milk processing plant in Pistakee Bay road 2 1/2 miles northeast of here, was destroyed by fire today. State authorities were investigating to determine whether the fire was connected with the Chicago milk strike.

Discovered at 3 a. m. by a passerby, firemen from McHenry and Fox Lake were unable to quench the blaze.

Five men were burned when a fuel oil tank exploded and three of them were in the hospital at Woodstock. They are Floyd Covert, a McHenry fireman, Kirk Selby and Howard Petty both employees of the dairy. Their condition was not immediately ascertained. Two others were slightly burned, and required only first aid treatment.

Frank Doherty, state deputy fire marshal, said a preliminary investigation indicated that the fire had started outside the building.

Dale Thomas, owner of the plant, said he did not sell milk to Chicago, but made deliveries to Woodstock, Crystal Lake, Richmond and McHenry. However, Doherty said he had learned that Thomas lost a load of milk in the strike early in May when pickets dumped a truck at Des Plaines.

Violence Continues

Chicago, May 23.—(AP)—Eleven men were held by the police today as violence continued in Chicago's milk strike.

The windows of 34 more stores were broken, bringing to 88 the number of establishments damaged since Sunday when milk wagon drivers quit work.

Police Sgt. Frank Godfrey arrested five men early today after seeing them throw bricks and a stench bomb through the window of a feed store.

Godfrey reported the men were union drivers. Six other drivers were arrested last night for interfering with the strike.

The War Today!

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The allied position this morning remained grave, especially for the great army which is partly surrounded by Germans in Belgium.

True, the great blitzkrieg has slowed down somewhat, although heavy fighting was proceeding at several points, and this eased the strain on the allies.

The fact that the allied troops have been making counter attacks at various places has caused a rise of spirits in London and Paris.

We must regard this as a respite in a battle which will be resumed shortly with all its former ferocity.

The French this morning were engaged in a fierce counter offensive in the Cambrai (F6) sector on the Scheldt (Escaut) river.

This region marks about the center of the German westward thrust and is at the point where the nazis shot out their mechanized units in a race to the channel ports. This mechanized thrust sticks out like a thin spear from the German main line and represents an effort carried out by comparatively few forces.

The French now are attacking the base of this spear in an effort to sever it and reach their beleaguered comrades in Belgium.

Rosenbusch's Arms and Leg Buried
as Those of an Unidentified Person

Arms and parts of a leg identified as those of Albert Rosenbusch, Sterling stock buyer, which were found in Rock river ten days ago, were buried in Riverside cemetery, east of Sterling, Wednesday on order of Dr. C. M. Frye, Whiteside county coroner.

No new clues have presented themselves and there has been nothing that might tend to shed some light on the mystery. The authorities are still hoping that they may secure evidence that might make it possible to solve the murder and bring the guilty to justice.

France Claims to Have Reformed
Her Armies

Paris, May 23.—(AP)—The French armies, effecting what foreign military experts called a "miracle or reorganization", fought today with new fury to reunite their northern and central armies and chop off the long, sharp spearhead which the Germans have driven through northern France to the sea.

Pocketed with their British and Belgian allies, the central French army, using tanks, planes, motorized units and artillery, engaged the Germans in a bitter sea-saw battle between Cambrai (E6) and Valenciennes (F6), 25 miles apart.

Here, at the base of their long southern salient which extends northwest to the Abbeville coastal region, the Germans attacked to make tighter and smaller the sack in which they are holding the allied forces of Flanders (estimated by the Germans at between 500,000 and 1,000,000 men).

(In London, the British reported their army faced an "extremely grave" crisis on the western front. A spokesman said the nazis were endangering British communications in Belgium and declared he was unable to say whether the allies could use channel ports.

(In Berlin, the German high command said port installations at Dover, (14) England, and Dunkerque, (15) France, had been "effectually bombed". The British promptly denied it. The Germans also told of heavy fighting near Valenciennes.)

Fighting "Satisfactory"

Military circles here said the fighting was progressing "satisfactorily on the whole."

The northern battlefield was described here as being divided into these three zones:

1. A stabilizing line along the Aisne river extending westward from Rethel, about 100 miles northeast of Paris, to an indefinite point.

2. The strongly consolidated line on the Somme river, whose southern bank the French said was strongly defended from Ham to Abbeville, an airline distance of about 60 miles.

3. A jagged line of confused positions extending northward from the Somme area and culminating in the Cambrai-Valenciennes battlefield.

But while the military arm reported this newest success in a northern battle being fought "with the greatest violence", the Admiralty announced the loss of three French naval units, a submarine a torpedo boat and a supply ship, in operations off the Dutch and Belgian coasts.

The success at Cambrai, the military spokesman said, neutralized the slight German advances yesterday in a localized region around the city.

Meanwhile, an official announcement said the French war cabinet had agreed that the administrative functions of the government would not be removed from Paris.

The allies appeared to be trying to weld a barrier of bayonets on the plains of northern France between the main power of Adolf Hitler's blitzkrieg columns and the channel ports.

In addition to the advance to Cambrai, the high command reported particularly violent artillery fire at Attigny, 10 miles east of Rethel on the main line of allied resistance; at Longuyon, 10 miles southwest of Longwy, near the junction of the French, Belgian and Luxembourg borders; and north of the Nied river, which

Anglers Appreciative of Park Board's Work

Many fishermen this spring are enjoying the activity of the Dixon park district in improving the river bank on both sides of the river between the Abraham Lincoln bridge and the dam. The river banks are well populated by expectant anglers daily and each evening the population is greatly increased. Only a few are successful in their efforts but all are enthusiastic in their praise of the greatly increased comfort provided by the park district.

This being the season for crappies, complaint has been made that some anglers have not taken into consideration the legal size of these fish. Officers of the Dixon Sportsmen's club have urged fishermen to abide by the conservation department's regulation, which prohibits the taking of crappies under five inches in length.

Our representatives in France report thousands dying by roadside of wounds, frost and hunger. American Red Cross must rush relief of every kind if these innocent people are to be saved. We are expediting millions of dollars in money and supplies, but we need more and bigger contributions to carry on. Can't urge upon you too strongly need for prompt action if we are to befriend these sorely tried victims of brutal madfame.

We count upon you to reach and over-subscribe your goal within shortest possible time. Every day's delay means hundreds may die because we have not brought them aid in their saddest hour.

Lochner Arrives at Channel; Nazi Flag Flying There

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER

With the German armies on the western front, May 23—(AP)—I have reached the English channel to find German forces here with the nazi swastika flying.

It seems almost unbelievable that I should find Germany at this channel.

But the nazi swastika waving from the local commander's headquarters leaves no doubt about it.

Crews of U-boats and speedboats are champing to be sent on their errands of destruction.

(Lochner, chief of The Associated Press Bureau in Berlin, is in the fifth day of a tour with the German forces on a personal invitation of Adolf Hitler. He did not specify the point at which he reached the English channel, but apparently it was some place in Belgium.)

(Technically the eastern limit of the channel runs between England and France, but Belgian ports popularly are considered to be on the channel.)

Here as elsewhere the roads of approach are jammed with infantry, more infantry and still more infantry and still more infantry and with artillery ever more formidable backed by an air force equipped to the last fine detail.

Await Command

All are awaiting Adolf Hitler's final command to go to England.

Everywhere one hears soldiers singing the "Engelland" song.

Young men realize such a venture would be no picnic.

"Maybe 50 of each 100 ships will be sunk by the British", one infantryman from Saxony said to me.

"But why shouldn't I be lucky and be on one of the ships that gets over?"

"And if not... well, that just cannot be helped."

Another lad from Mecklenburg rubbed his hands and declared:

"Oh, boy! won't it be great to march on to London?"

Just when Hitler will push the button, however, nobody could predict.

Meanwhile the occupation forces have normalized life in this sector of the front as they did everywhere else.

The Belgians go about their work as usual.

Cafes and restaurants are open with Germans and Belgians mingling freely.

Will Mop Up First

The reich's western armies are battling to close the right wing of their pincers about allied forces in northern France and Belgium and at the same time pour other divisions into mopping up operations behind their lines before undertaking their next big maneuver.

Hitler is not likely to attempt to attack England herself until he has paved the way to his satisfaction with a tried and trusted program of these main points:

1. Destruction of all British naval, air and ground organization by air raiding.

2. Similar destruction of airplanes and vessels.

3. Combined attack by speedboats, submarines and air bombers on British transports and warships.

Not until the fuhrer feels that this has been done satisfactorily is he likely to aim a decisive blow with land forces.

Continuous Bombing

Continuous bombing of the Belgian channel port of Ostend (16) and the French ports of Dunkerque (15), Calais (14) and Dieppe is in line with this in the continental fighting, the intention being to demolish docks to which British reinforcements might come and from which British and allied troops might escape in event of a rout.

Another thing the Germans are doing now is to try to smash enough Belgian and French airports to prevent the continental allies from bringing effective air aid to England in the event she needs it during any German attack on the British Isles.

The Battle fortress, one of Belgium's last big fortifications of the famed Liege (G9) line, fell yesterday in one of the German mopping up operations. I saw it taken in a 20-minute artillery, air and infantry attack of clock-like precision.

Other such positions seemed destined to follow with the same German efficiency.

TOURIST CAMPS INSPECTED

Springfield, Ill., May 23—(AP)—Tourist camps in Illinois are being inspected by state sanitary engineers and a guide listing health ratings will be issued next month, the state health department announced today.

Every known tourist camp has already been inspected and a second check-up is under way to determine if health recommendations were carried out, Chief Sanitary Engineer C. W. Klassen said.

FOR CLEAN READING

Springfield, Ill., May 23—(AP)—Members of the Illinois Pharmaceutical Association have voted to keep their magazine and book stands free of obscene literature. The resolution was adopted unanimously by delegates to the organization's 61st annual convention.

Rubies were the first gems to be made synthetically on a commercial scale.

The War Today—

The allied troops in Belgium, mainly British and Belgian, meantime are making a gallant assault southward, to try to reach the forces working north.

Should this operation be successful it would save the allies in Belgium—totaling between half a million and a million—from the serious danger of being utterly smashed.

It also would leave the mechanized German units along the coast pretty much up in the air.

Details of the fighting in Belgium during the past days of terror are few, but we know enough to say that the defense which the English and Belgians have been making there represents an epic.

Official word from London is that the Germans finally have succeeded in crossing the Scheldt river, 32 miles west of Brussels (H7) and raced on close to the coast. This would render the allied position there much more grave.

The slowing down of the offensive is a very natural thing and doesn't represent weakness on the part of the Germans. They must consolidate the ground which they already have overrun, give their troops a breathing spell, bring up fresh reinforcements, and it is vital to move forward further supplies, especially that all important oil and gasoline upon which all their mechanized efforts depend.

This is the juncture at which we might expect allied Generalissimo Weygand to strike with a powerful counter attack, and it is reported that he is getting set for such a great effort.

While it is too soon to judge from the few facts at hand, it is possible that the fierce fighting now proceeding in the Cambrai sector which I mentioned above may swell into another great engagement. The Germans are striking back heavily and are bombing allied communications leading to the Cambrai sector.

Meantime the German air force has been attempting to strafe channel ports with the idea of preventing reinforcements from reaching the allied troops in Belgium and stopping any possible effort to rescue these troops by water.

Louis Lochner, Associated Press chief of bureau in Berlin who is at the front with the Germans, reported this morning that he had reached the English Channel. From there he reports that "crews of U-boats and speedboats are champing to be sent on their errands of destruction."

Sgt. Terrell Is Real Enthusiast About U. S. Army

Sergeant William N. Terrell of the United States Army who arrived in town yesterday has opened headquarters for an indefinite period at the Chamber of Commerce Building. The sergeant is an old timer in the army and knows all the answers about how to join any branch of the service.

He said: "My job is sort of a salesman to sell jobs to other men who are either out of work or wish to make a change of both employment and residence."

"Of course all I do is to explain in detail the many advantages and attractions of an army career to men who are eligible and who can qualify. It is not so easy to get into the United States army. A man has got to be pretty good and ambitious to do something and go places. You get plenty of action and see plenty of life when you join up for service."

"Most of us who have been in for a long time feel we are much better off than in civilian life. All our needs are furnished by Uncle Sam and in a fine way. Every soldier is paid enough wages to even save money if he wishes to and most of us do. Besides there is a good comfortable feeling when you know you are well taken care of for life and don't have to worry what's going to happen to you when you get too old to work. That sense of security is worth a lot these days."

Pay Increases

"Our pay increases with advancement and promotion. Every man in the army has an equal chance to go up the ladder. It all depends upon him. Certainly we work hard but it's mostly out of the open air that's easy to breathe and not in some close foul air smelly machine shop or factory."

Our work hours are no longer than any employed civilian. We have plenty of time for recreation and fun—and we have plenty of that too. I get so enthusiastic talking about army life I nearly forgot to tell you why I am here and what we are doing. Well you see it's this way. The president has decided to increase the army. I suppose that's on account of the mess over in Europe, which personally I can't see is going to involve us in any way. It might bother us a little. So the president probably thought best to increase our own army up to 240,000. He can do that under the National Defense Act which was passed back in 1920.

"So that's all there is to it and it sure opens a lot of good jobs for the right sort of young men. Most of them joining now are out of work. They want a chance to learn a trade at one of our army schools and perhaps travel. They like the idea of a steady job—no seasonal layoffs and three square meals a day. So if you know anyone here who wants a job or a new one where the sky is the limit, just tell him to see me and I'll give him an earful."

Barrett's Suit for Recount Heard Today

Bloomington, Ill., May 23—(AP)—State Auditor Edward J. Barrett's suit in which he seeks a recount of votes cast in six counties in last month's primary election was down for hearing today before Judge W. C. Radloff.

Barrett was defeated for re-election on the Democratic ticket by John C. Martin.

Martin, in a formal answer to the suit, denied yesterday that "any frauds, irregularities, omissions, mistakes, errors, or illegal

Patriotic Mass at St. Patrick's Church Sunday

Next Sunday, being the Sunday immediately preceding Memorial Day, Dixon Post No. 12, American Legion, will attend the 10:30 o'clock mass at St. Patrick's church. It is the annual custom of the members of the Legion to attend some church in the community on this Sunday to pay their tributes to their deceased comrades. This year an invitation has been extended by the Reverend Father T. L. Walsh of St. Patrick's Catholic church and this invitation was gratefully accepted by the Legion at its last meeting. All members of the post are requested to meet at the post quarters in the Hotel Dixon, at 10 o'clock Sunday morning to march in a body, preceded by the post colors, to the church.

Other Organizations Invited

The Dixon Memorial Association has also received an invitation from Father Walsh to attend these services and all patriotic organizations having membership in the Dixon Memorial Association and all other patriotic organizations in the community are invited to join with the Legion at these services. The annual church services of the Dixon Memorial Association are always held on the same Sunday and this year it is hoped that all services can be joined in the one. The officers of the different associations are requested to have their members notified of these arrangements.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SAID:

"Excessive partiality for one foreign nation and excessive dislike of another cause those whom they actuate to see danger only on one side, and serve to veil and even second the arts of influence on the other. Real patriots who may resist the intrigues of the favorite are liable to become suspected and odious, while its tools and dupes usurp the applause and confidence of the people to surrender their interests." From the Farewell Address.

Apparently Defensive

Mr. Roosevelt's demand for annual production capacity of 50,000 fighting planes contemplates one of two possibilities:

First, it would be possible to make this capacity available to the allies if it is found desirable to do so.

Second, the airplanes would be for purely defensive purposes in case of an allied defeat.

Whatever Mr. Roosevelt may have said regarding the possibility of air bombers over St. Louis or Omaha, the stunt doesn't look so easy when it is turned the other way around. For instance, even if we had the 50,000 planes which could be turned out in one year under the new program, we would hesitate before launching an aerial attack against any European power by way of the Panama canal, South America, Africa and thence across the Mediterranean to Europe. Or by way of Newfoundland, either.

England is much nearer to Norway than Germany is to the United States. Comparatively, the distance separating England from Norway is only a hop, step and a jump. But Germany was closer than that to Norway. Operating from Danish soil, the Germans had to traverse only a strip of water comparable to one of our Great Lakes in order to reach Norse territory.

Now England couldn't get enough men and equipment to Norway to drive out the Germans because of the 600-odd miles of water separating England from Norway. Germany's navy couldn't compare with Britain's, so the British must have refused to expose their full navy and transport service to Nazi air attack.

Germany transported parachute troops and regular troops to Norway by airplane, but in no case were tanks, heavy artillery and other heavy materials taken to Norway by airplane. Germany's transport service to Norway was protected by German superiority in the air, and by the distance between England and Norway. And that distance as remarked, was very small as compared to the vast stretches of the Atlantic ocean.

If the Germans, by making full use of their air power, were able to keep the British out of Norway, then the United States could keep an invader away with much greater ease.

Here is another point: Hitler's break through the low countries was a confession that he couldn't make an effective attack in any other way. He is aiming at the channel ports, and from these ports, some only twenty miles or more from British soil, he could launch heavy bombers and their necessary escorting pursuit planes to attack British centers.

In order to get only a few miles nearer to England, Hitler has been compelled to launch the world's mightiest battle, to risk his whole position on one blow. He makes this great effort because it wasn't feasible for him to fly across or around tiny Belgium and Holland. These countries, as viewed on a map, are only specks as compared to the Atlantic ocean.

Therefore we are forced to conclude that the Roosevelt program is purely defensive, and on that basis any one can, and should, support it.

One Billion Is Small Change

President Roosevelt's request for more than a billion dollars to enlarge and improve the army, navy and marine corps, to fortify our borders properly and to enable the United States aviation industry to turn out 50,000 airplanes a year is only small change.

We have read somewhere that a modern bombing plane costs $250,000. Fifty thousand such craft would cost 12 billion 500 million dollars. Of course a balanced air arm would not consist entirely of heavy bombers. Each bomber on a mission needs smaller planes of the pursuit type as an escort. These planes, we hear, cost around $100,000 apiece—but we do not guarantee the accuracy of the figures. We only use the estimates as a basis for thought. An air arm consisting of 12,000 bombers and 24,000 pursuit planes, the latter costing $100,000 apiece, would require an outlay of 5 billion 200 million dollars. Even if the costs could be halved by means of mass production methods, the expenditure would be more than twice the President's entire demand for improvement of coast defenses, additions to the army, navy, air force and marine corps. One guesses that the original request for about one billion 200 million is only a starter, and a small one at that. Mr. Roosevelt intimated as much.

Our Own Markets

Foreign trade, for the period of the war and perhaps afterward, is sick of a galloping consumption. It cannot be carried on in any solid manner while the war is on. Its future after the war is obscure.

Therefore it is cheering to note that trade with our own territories and island possessions is flourishing. Last year Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands bought $235,000,000 worth of goods from the United States. That is $8,000,000 more than in 1938 and was exceeded only by the United Kingdom and Canada. Exports to Alaska alone, for instance, were exceeded by only eight of 31 European countries.

Surely this suggests that in aggressive development of its own territories the United States can compensate for war losses in trade, and build for the future a trade not subject to post-war confusions.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc., reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited.)

Washington, May 23. — Mr. Roosevelt has shed sharply away from war implications and titles in his confabs with leaders lately about forming some kind of a new top organization to put efficiency grease in industrial capacity for national defense. Any mention of the old "War Industries Board" of the Wilson era is said (by the callers) to have caused presidential grimaces, but what he has been talking about is something like it under a less belligerent name.

The deduction of those who have been listening to him is that he has long wanted a "defense council" of perhaps 4 or 5 members to coordinate and direct the arms-plant expansion program. Presumably this council would have the same standing as the old unofficial cabinet of McNutt-Jones-Hopkins which attended cabinet discussions but did not have official cabinet rating.

The old War Industries chairman, Bernard Baruch, has been mentioned frequently in discussions for the post of chief defense councilor. His health has not been the best and he might not want the job permanently, although his associates have said he could be induced to take it for three or four months to get the organization started.

The president had the same idea a year ago and Baruch wanted the job then. Somehow it failed to work out.

The prevailing blintz-debate whether Hitler would ever really want to invade the United States involves a lot of cloud tossing which may have obscured some facts visible at our feet as Colonel Lindbergh says.

Bigger than your foot and just as close is the fact that Canada has had a declaration of war standing against Germany. Roosevelt has publicly committed this government to the defense of Canadian soil. Even if he had not, the simplest instincts of self defense would pledge this army and navy to resist the establishment of any German holdings there. A German victory then would involve terms of British or Canadian surrender—"unconditional" or otherwise—which would bring the problem of our ability to defend this hemisphere immediately to our doorstep. Would the British government escape to Canada and then what would happen if the Germans pursued it? Would Britain be required to surrender any portion of Canada (or Bermuda)? Would Canada continue to fight after Britain surrendered?

Any answer to these and the related question of the disposition of the British fleet involves U. S. defense ability right at the moment of surrender, not next week or next year when we may be better ready.

The French General Gamelin was the McClelland of the French army to hear the insiders tell it. He was a master organizer and an amateur field strategist. The French knew it and kept him only until the first crack developed in his defenses, which proved to be too long.

Recent talk about selling the allies 4,000 or 5,000 American army and navy planes now in service was useless. We do not have that many.

Some consideration was given early this week to the possibility of selling 200 or 300. The air needs of the allies were known to be desperate.

But even those few administration authorities who had no other objection, were afraid of what congress might say.

Shyness of the Republicans toward coalescing with Roosevelt is not based on lack of patriotism but upon past experience. Roosevelt has a reputation, whether justified or not, of embracing his political opponents with suffocating affection. There was the case of a New England Republican governor who earned such a national reputation for liberalism in the depression he was mentioned as a Republican presidential prospect some years ago. Later he was coalesced into the new deal and now he is American delegate to the International Labor Conference at Geneva, and recently was elected chairman. Another case was that of the Hoosier Democratic presidential candidate, Paul McNutt, whose light has been more or less effectively protected from shining too brightly through the White House bushel. Also Ex-Governor Landon's past experiences in which he cooperated himself out of the best wishes of some of the other Republican leaders.

U. S. savings bonds 8,402,505 in number, with a sales price of $1.767,676,612 were sold by post offices in the four years from March, 1935, to June, 1939.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 quarts a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of ten and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait. Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. ### ● SERIAL STORY

— ROMANCE AHEAD

BY TOM HORNER

COPYRIGHT 1940, NEA SERVICE, INC.

DANGER

YESTERDAY: Larry and Monnie become better friends. One night he asks her to go to a dance, but she has a date with Bentley. When Mike is delayed, Larry steps to chat. He questions her about the accident on Dead Man's Curve. She refuses, angrily, to talk about it. "I have a right to know," Larry tells her. "That man was my brother."

CHAPTER VII

MONNIE relaxed under the grip of Larry's fingers. She looked up at him, unbelieving. "Your brother?"

"Yes."

"But the man was never identified. He was burned so horribly. I know it was Hugh." Larry tried to make his voice calm. It wasn't easy, talking to her like this. His hands dropped from her shoulders. "When I didn't hear from Hugh, I came down to look for him. I've been all over the west, searching for him," Larry lied. "I heard about this accident, this unidentified man. I took a chance it might be Hugh. I was right. A dentist's examination confirmed it."

"I'm sorry, Larry, terribly sorry." The touch of her hand on his arm was comforting, her sympathy was sincere. She sat down again, gently pulled him to the swing beside her. "Tell me more about him, Larry."

He rolled a cigaret, tried to keep his eyes from her. That Monnie knew more about this accident than he was telling, he was sure. But how could he find out, without arousing her suspicions. Perhaps she might be involved—No, Monnie would never be mixed up in a crooked deal. But if she loved Bentley. . . . A woman will do almost anything for the man she loves.

What was Bentley's role? Hating Bentley as he did, it was easy for Larry to accuse him of some part in Hugh's death. Bentley was on friendly terms with a bank robber—this Bill was working at the Circle-Cross.

A match flared in the darkness. Monnie's hand was touching his own. Larry liked being near to her. He was tempted to put his arm around her, pull her close, kiss those inviting lips. Monnie's voice brought him back to the present.

"This brother of yours, Larry—" "Hugh was a swell guy," Larry began. "Married, lived downstate. He was—he was in the insurance business. Burglary insurance. Traveled a lot. But he wrote me regularly, and wrote to Betty, his wife, every day."

"When Betty didn't hear from him for a week, she wired me. I came down and we've been looking for him ever since. That was more than five months ago." He hoped Monnie wouldn't ask why, as a newspaperman, he couldn't have checked accident records sooner. She didn't, was apparently too deeply engrossed in her own thoughts.

"And to think," she said abruptly, "I was the cause of the accident. I killed your brother, Larry."

"Monnie! You don't know what you're saying."

"It's true, Larry. I didn't mean to, but I did. It was my fault! Oh, Larry! So he shook her body, and Larry's arm went around her then, to pull her head down on his shoulder. After a few minutes, she stopped crying, dried her eyes and pushed away from him.

"Don't blame me too much, Larry. If I hadn't been driving so fast—"

"It happened up on Dead Man's Curve," she began. "That's on the highway about half-way between here and Mike's. You know where you leave the concrete to turn into the Hayhook. . . . If you went straight on, you'd dip down into the canyon and then climb a long hill to go by Bentley's. The curve is halfway up the hill. It's a sharp turn, but it's well marked and not dangerous unless you try to make it too fast. Going up, you have the inside. The canyon floor is about 300 feet below the curve and it's almost a sheer drop."

Larry could feel her grow tense as she forced herself to go on. "On the night of the accident, Mike called me. It was late but he said he'd just come back from Chicago, flown down with some friends and they wanted to meet me. He'd brought me some presents, too, and some things I'd asked him to get for me. He couldn't leave his guests, he said, so would I drive right over."

"I was on the way inside of half an hour. I always drive fast and I went up the hill doing about 50 or 60. Then at the curve—"

She paused briefly, got a new grip on her emotions, then went on. "I must have been about 200 yards from the curve when this car came down the hill. I couldn't stop. The driver apparently made no effort to turn, when he saw my lights. His car crashed through the barricade, plunged over the cliff and rolled down into the canyon."

"I stopped as soon as I could, pulled off the road a little and ran back to where the car had disappeared. Far down in the canyon, I could see flames shooting up from the wreckage of the car. Then I heard a shot.

"I stood there, paralyzed, and suddenly, Mike was beside me. Together we scrambled and slid down to the car, tried to pull the dead man from the burning wreck."

"Pretty soon there were other people around and at last two highway patrolmen arrived. Mike talked to them for a bit, then helped me climb back up to the road. He brought me home."

"BUT that's not the story you told at the inquest," Larry broke in. "You testified that the car went over the edge before you reached the turn—"

"Mike made me say that, Mike and Daddy," Monnie admitted. "After that accident at school, and the others I had been in, Mike said the coroner would never believe I hadn't forced the man off the road. I didn't want to lie about it, Larry—she was begging him to believe her—"

With my reputation for fast driving, and because I was the only witness to the accident—they

Several Dixon women expect to go to Chicago on Saturday to attend the May breakfast of the Conference of Club Presidents and Program chairmen, at which Sir Wilfred Grenfell, medical missionary to Labrador, will receive the organization's annual award "for distinguished service to humanity."

Mrs. Charles S. Clark, president of the conference, will make the award in the presence of some 2,100 women from Illinois, Michigan, Indiana and Wisconsin, members of the conference.

According to Mrs. Clark, the award will be given "in appreciation of the faith, valor, ability and limitless spiritual inspiration of a great and truly Christian man, a healer of men, a humble and heroic spirit, one who kindled the soul of Labrador, one who followed the Christ ideal as a true musician renders great music."

SOUTH DIXON CLUB

Blooming plants were presented to each member in memory of Mother's Day, at yesterday's meeting of the South Dixon Community club. Miss Katherine Fuestman was hostess, her guests numbering 19.

Mrs. Carl Blum conducted the afternoon meeting, which was opened with group singing. Mrs. Belle Mumford received a gift from her "club pal" in observance of her wedding anniversary, and songs were sung in her honor. A 15-minute program presented by Mrs. Blum was followed by games of 50, with Mrs. John Patterson and Mrs. William Spangler receiving prizes.

After refreshments served by the hostess and Mrs. Norman Miller, the guests enjoyed a tour of the Fuestman gardens.

Plans for the club's annual picnic will be discussed on June 12 at the home of Mrs. Charles Beard. Mrs. Amy Wolfram will arrange the program.

FROM INDIANA

Mrs. A. S. Derr and Mrs. I. S. Graybill returned last evening from Elkhart and Mishawaka, Ind., where they had been visiting friends since Monday. At Elkhart, they were guests of the Austin, Gus and Harvey Winey brothers, and in Mishawaka, they spent some time with the families of Alton and Ray Winey.

The Wineys formerly resided near Richfield, Pa. The Winey brothers at Elkhart operate the Elkhart Mill Work company, Ray owns a dress shop, and Alton is a retired merchant.

The word "chauffeur" is French, meaning to make hot. The term was first applied to stokers.

Entertain For Californians

Greeting old friends is a welcome task, and the presence of a former Dixon couple, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Miller of Berkeley, Calif., has prompted a continuous round of entertaining since their arrival two weeks ago for a visit with Mrs. George Hawley.

Yesterday, Mrs. Hawley and Mrs. Theodore Fuller were entertaining 30 guests at luncheon at Beck's in Grand Detour, complimenting Mrs. Miller. Afterward, the group was invited to Mrs. Hawley's home for the afternoon.

Mr. Miller's niece, Mrs. Jack Russell, came out from Chicago today, and was entertained with the Californians at a luncheon arranged by Dr. Marion White. Mrs. Warren C. Durkes is hostessing at dinner this evening and tomorrow Mrs. Miller is to be the luncheon guest of Mrs. E. N. Howell.

The Theodore Fullers are planning dinner for the visitors Saturday evening, and on Sunday, Mrs. Hawley will be giving a family dinner in their honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller expect to leave Sunday night for Portland, Ore., to visit their son, Orville. En route to Berkeley they will stop in Sacramento, where another son, Roy, resides.

FRIENDLY EIGHT

Mrs. George Ites invited members of the Friendly Eight club to her home yesterday afternoon for games of buncos. Mrs. William Eller Mrs. James Buckingham, Mrs. Ole Anderson, Jr. and Mrs. Bessie Buckingham received favors in the games, which will be resumed in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Harry Fishback.

A practical and attractive window treatment is to build a casing of narrow shelves at each side and above the window, with closed closets or long shelves underneath. The shelves might contain books or colorful ornaments; the closets beneath would be a fine storage space for playing cards, score sheets, pencils, extra ashtrays, any small incidentals, or even extra linens.

Linen Crash

Color is the high note of Rita Hayworth's linen crash outfit. The long skirt is turquoise; the shorts gold; a snug henna bolero is embroidered in these shades accented with brown. Cream and brown tiny shells make the rope jewelry.

About 4,500 miles of canals have been built in the U. S., but less than half is used today.

IDEAL CLUB ENDS SEASON'S STUDY AT SMITH HOME

Members of the Ideal club concluded their study for the season yesterday afternoon, with a review of the final chapters of the book, "The Flowering of New England," Mrs. George W. Smith of 203 East Boyd street entertained with a tea room luncheon, preceding the afternoon's study period at her home.

Mrs. L. W. Miller gave the review, centering about the poets and writers of the Civil war period, and the manner in which they were influenced by the perplexing problems arising from the freeing of the slaves. She concluded her remarks with a tribute to the beloved poet, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

"Seeing America with American Women Novelists" was chosen as the theme for next year's program. Miss Flossie Kreitzer and Mrs. Blake Grover were guests of the club yesterday.

The group's annual family picnic is being planned for next month.

Handy to keep pleats and trousers creased in order is an inexpensive miniature electric presser equipped with a stay-cool handle and thermostatic control to prevent overheating and scorching. Heated chromium jaws fit over the edge of the pleat or trouser crease you want to press and are run along slowly. Since it is so small, and operates on both AC or DC current, this is an excellent little gadget to pack in your suitcase when traveling.

The naval losses were the 548-ton submarine Doris; the 1,378-ton torpedo boat L'Ardroit; and the supply ship LeNiger, 5,482 tons.

The Admiralty gave no report on the crew of the Doris, which normally carried 40 men, but said all members of the crews of the other two vessels were rescued.

The military spokesman estimated the allied aerial forces had brought down "at least 1,000" German planes since May 10.

The operations in the Cambrai region, the spokesman emphasized, resulted from the withdrawal yesterday by French troops from the northwestern outskirts after German attacks.

Later in the day, however, French units counterattacked and "won back even more than we had lost," the spokesman said.
The activity was described as "the biggest part" of "a great battle now in progress along the Escaut (Scheldt) river north of the city."

German Bombers—

munications being endangered by the new Nazi onslaught, a British expeditionary force communique acknowledged that the Germans had reached "the neighborhood of the coast" of the English Channel.

The German high command reported the harbor facilities at Dover (14), England, and Dunkerque (15), France, had been "effectively bombed."

Apparently the Germans were trying to prevent either the flight of reputedly "trapped" British troops from Dunkerque or the cross-channel transportation of reinforcements from Dover.

Coincidentally, emphasizing the gravity of the allied position in the 14-day-old war in the west, Berlin sources asserted that British troops falling back toward the channel were "embarking at several French coastal points."

England-bound transports, it was said, were bombed by German planes.

The German high command declared Hitler's mechanized troops were "slowly winning" in terrific fighting in Flanders, along the Scheldt river line.

An allied attempt to blast through Nazi defense lines with tanks near Cambrai (F6), 65 miles from the channel, was repulsed, the high command said.

The new gap in the allied lines was described as lying between Arras (F6) and Bapaume, 12 miles south.

In Paris, a military spokesman estimated the allied aerial forces had brought down "at least 1,000" German planes since May 10.

The French government announced it was staying in Paris, countering widespread reports that the menace of a Nazi sweep into the French capital had resulted in a decision to remove to southern France, as it did in the World War.

Allies Claim Successes
New successes were claimed by the French high command for the allied forces under Generalissimo Maxime Weygand even while the British command acknowledged that the Nazi blitzkrieg legions had pushed their Belgian line westward and had gotten motorized units through a gap in northern France "to the neighborhood of the coast."

The fighting at Cambrai, 25 miles north of St. Quentin, was described by the French as of the "greatest violence."

Although German power thrusts aimed at Paris and the English Channel are held temporarily at least in the mud of northern France, here is the task the Fuehrer has set out for himself, as outlined by his field officers:

Demolish allied naval and air ground organization, then their airplanes, warships and transports, and finally—the supreme bid for a decisive blow with his gray-green land forces.

Meanwhile, allied gloom, thickened by five days of crushing reverses, gave way to outspoken optimism at the news that Hitler's lightning drive had been checked by fierce allied air and land counterattacks.

Republicans Join Democratic Move to Block Aliens

Washington, May 23.—(AP)—A special House committee unanimously adopted today a resolution for quick congressional approval of President Roosevelt's alien control order transferring the immigration service from the labor department to the justice department.

The action came less than 24 hours after the President sent Congress the order and a message saying the transfer would enable the government "to deal quickly" with undesirable aliens.

The proposal was the only one of the five organization programs the President has submitted that won the unanimous endorsement of both Republicans and Democrats on the special government reorganization committee.

Leaders said they hoped to push the resolution of approval through the House before the week end. It would make the transfer effective ten days after both Senate and House adopted it and Roosevelt signed it.

Representative Warren (D-N.C.), member of the House committee, said he had been informed that Senate leaders would attempt to pass the resolution by unanimous consent—a procedure which would require only a few seconds.

Congress normally has 60 days to reject or approve the President's reorganization plans, but Roosevelt said that since the session probably would end within that period, special affirmative action should be taken.

Rep. Taber (R-N.Y.) joined Cochran in predicting overwhelming House approval. He said that "ordinary people" would not object.

For Quicker Action
The immigration service now is in the labor department, Roosevelt said that the change would "enable the government to deal quickly with those aliens who conduct themselves in a manner that conflicts with the public interest."

The spotlight against undesirable aliens also was focused on three other points in the House:

1. The House rules committee will decide Tuesday whether to give legislative right-of-way to a bill by Rep. Allen (D-La.) to deport Harry Bridges, CIO west coast maritime leader.

2. Rep. Dies (D-Tex.) said that he would press for approval of his bill to plug loopholes in the immigration and naturalization laws and to reduce the annual immigration quotas of 153,000 by one-third.

3. Amendments were pending to the billion-dollar relief bill to deny WPA funds to communists and other aliens. All factions agreed that some restrictions would be approved.

Landon Visits Sec. of State Hull This Morn

Washington, May 23.—(AP)—Alfred M. Landon said today, after a conference with Secretary Hull, that he personally was willing that the United States take part in the economic reconstruction of the post-war world.

Landon, the Republican presidential nominee in 1936, went to Hull for a "fill in" on foreign affairs and received it in a 50-minute conference. Landon said afterwards they had discussed not only Europe but also Latin America and the Far East.

Landon refused to say whether, after his talk with the secretary of state, he supported Hull's policies, but did remind reporters that he had not opposed Hull's trade agreements program.

In speaking of Hull he inadvertently used the phrase "President Hull."

Asked by a reporter whether this reflected a subconscious thought, Landon laughingly replied: "If Hull is nominated and the Republicans put up a good man, the country is bound to have a good president no matter who wins."

Freight Rates on Coal in Midwest Prolet

Washington, May 23.—(AP)—A complaint protesting freight rates to destinations in the middle west was filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday by the Property Owners' Committee, an organization representing bituminous coal miners and shippers in the fields of southern West Virginia, Virginia and eastern Kentucky.

The committee contended its members were "hampered, handicapped and prejudiced" in competing with other coal producers in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

The ICC was asked to order an investigation with a view to prescribing more favorable rates.

TWO DIXON BOYS HURT
Joseph Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Green, 711 Madison avenue, suffered the loss of parts of two fingers on his left hand yesterday afternoon, which were removed at the Katherine Shaw Bethel hospital. The boy's hand became caught in the revolving blades of a lawn mower and the third and fourth fingers were so badly lacerated that it was found necessary to amputate them at the first joint. He was returned to his home following the amputation.

John Walters, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Walters, fell from a tree, a distance of about 15 feet at the North Central school yesterday afternoon, sustaining a fracture of the left arm. The boy had climbed into the tree to retrieve a baseball which had lodged in the limbs. After being treated at a physician's office, he was returned to his home.

$40 Pension—

effective as soon as it is approved by Horner rather than waiting until July 1.

Ward said he had not decided whether to sponsor an amendment putting an emergency clause in the house bill.

Other Pensions
The house pension bill drafted by the Republican-controlled public welfare committee but amended to comply with Horner's recommendations for a $40 monthly maximum, was passed late yesterday by a vote of 134 to 0.

Besides boosting the pension ceiling from $30 to $40, the house bill makes old age assistance available to blind pensions who fail to receive blind pensions, provides for "necessary" medical aid and corrects a technicality of the present law denying assistance to applicants whose needs are greater than the maximum award.

Rep. Leo D. Crowley (R-Peoria), welfare committee chairman, told the house the GOP bloc was accepting the bill as a "compromise" and predicted the 1941 regular legislative session would "further liberalize the pension program when we have a Republican governor and a Republican administration in the statehouse."

As originally proposed by the Crowley committee, the bill placed no limitation on assistance awards.

Senate to Rush—

go to start the army and navy toward the 50,000 plane goal envisioned by Roosevelt.

$454,000,000 for Aviation
The army bill as approved by the Senate carried $454,000,000 for aviation purposes.

In the navy bill, $326,000,000 in cash and contract authority has been earmarked for the air defense, with planes, bases and special help to manufacturers heading the list.

There was likelihood of even greater aviation spending by the navy. The Senate naval committee opened hearings today on a proposal to boost the fleet's "paper" air strength to an immediate level of 10,000 planes and to provide 16,000 pilots to fly them. Authorization would be included for a start of work on 20 naval air bases, to cost $124,132,000. Similar legislation got House committee approval yesterday.

The Senate-approved army bill contained not only the regular war department requests, but also the special appropriations asked by Roosevelt in his defense message a week ago. The Senate also added some money over and above those emergency recommendations.

This bill now goes back to the House for concurrence.

Softball League

At the meeting of the Softball league of Forreston held Tuesday evening it was decided that the league should be limited to eight teams, with rosters of not more than 15 players each. The same eligibility rules will stand, as last year, with the exception of teams outside of the school district.

Reemstma and Henry Hayenga were appointed to be responsible for the lights. Games are to start promptly at 8 o'clock, and will be played on Wednesday and Friday evenings. Postponed games will be played on the following Monday evening. The board of control elected at the meeting Mayor Joe Maas, A. J. Taylor and H. M. Wubbena, who with the managers of the eight teams are to draw up the rules and present lists of players at a meeting to be held Monday evening, May 27. Concession bids should be in to J. I. Masterson, secy.-treasurer, by May 27.

Keith McGuire was appointed to make out team schedules and Jim Harrigan, J. I. Masterson and Alva Boelkes were requested for umpires. The board of control will again furnish balls. The first game will be played Wednesday evening, June 5.

Third Birthday

Sallie Lee, daughter of the Walter Ludwigs, celebrated her third birthday last Thursday afternoon with a party for twelve little playmates and their mothers. A pleasant time was enjoyed and Sallie Lee was nicely remembered. Mrs. Leroy Krum and sons Larry and Ronald of Sevard were out-of-town guests. Evening guests who came to congratulate the little girl were Mrs. Wallace Bolt, W. H. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hanke and Miss Erma Dixon, all of Freeport, and Merle Smith of Dixon.

Plane 'Bakeries'

Van Nuys, Calif., May 23.—(AP)—From an army aviation expert comes a prediction that huge airplane "bakeries"—kneading plastics rather than dough—may open the door to mass production of fighting craft.

Col. Joseph L. Stromme of the Army Air Corps planning division witnessed the testing of an all-plastic airplane here yesterday. In an address to 300 spectators he said:

"Aviation heretofore has been individual in production. Now we see demonstrated the extreme possibility that airplanes soon may be turned out of molds, swiftly and at comparatively low cost. This may mark the start of an era of mass production of air craft, military and commercial."

New President State Medical Soc. Seated

Peoria, Ill., May 23.—(AP)—The installation of Dr. J. S. Templeton of Pinckneyville as president of the Illinois Medical Society highlighted today's final session of the organization's centennial convention.

Dr. Templeton, elected president at last year's meeting, was installed by the retiring president, Dr. James H. Hutton of Chicago.

Still before the medical was the choosing of a president-elect who, in accordance with the custom of alternating the office between Chicago and downstate points, was scheduled to be a Chicagoan.

Dr. Noah D. Fabricant, who is on the staff of the University of Illinois college of medicine, told the convention in an address last night that scientists have found "distinct relationships" between weather conditions and some diseases.

Foolish Action; Foolish Verdict; Foolish Decree

Chicago, May 23.—(AP)—They thought Judge W. W. Damron was fooling yesterday when he said he would set the McCowan false arrest suit for trial in 1950 if he decided it deserved another hearing.

But they were mistaken, because the judge granted a new trial today and instructed the attorneys to be ready to proceed on Jan. 5, 1950.

"A foolish case and a foolish verdict requires a foolish order," Judge Damron declared.

Seven men and five women jurors marched solemnly into his court yesterday and reported they had found Mrs. Hallie McCowan, 49, of St. Louis, guilty on the malice count in a $50,000 action brought by Mrs. Mabel Perry, 47, of Chicago. Then they assessed damages "in the sum of none dollars."

The astounded jurist termed it "the most perfect and most senseless—verdict in the most senseless case in my career." A malice count must award monetary damages, he said. "Even 1 cent would have made it legal."

The case arose from a disorderly conduct charge lodged by Mrs. McCowan against Mrs. Perry and her estranged husband, Dr. Don Cabot McCowan, 70. Later the charge was dismissed, the false arrest suit was filed and came before Judge Damron, who lives in Harrisburg, but is sitting here temporarily.

At first Judge Damron set the new trial for Jan. 1, 1950, but Irving Breakstone, Mrs. Perry's attorney, said that date was a Sunday. "I'm usually busy the first of the week," interposed James A. Brooks, who represented Mrs. McCowan. "How about a Thursday?"

"Thursday it is," declared the court. "Thursday, Jan. 5, 1950".

PLAYERS' LISTS WANTED

All players' lists of teams in the softball league must be turned in by Friday to O. E. Rowley so that players' passes may be issued.

BASEBALL FASHION NOTES

This year promises to be one of the best the softball league has ever seen—at least as far as classy uniforms are concerned. Among those who have shown what the best dressed teams are wearing this season have been the Borden, Reynolds, Sinclair and Kellers teams. Others have uniforms ordered. The Knacks, of the hardball league, will trot out in their spiffy gray and red-trimmed outfits Sunday afternoon at Maytown. The whole picture has a major league tint.

YEARS OF EXPERIENCE

Walter Morrison, pitcher this year for the Sinclair Oilers, led mound duty for nine years with the Peoria team now known as the Caterpillars. Morrison last night permitted the Reynolds team only four hits off his Class A chucking.

STATE HOSPITAL TEAM ROSTER

Tony Demijan, manager of the State Hospital softball team, has turned in his final list of players. They are: Roy Burkey, Anthony Demijan, Joseph Mossey, Walter Oakley, Dick Ruva, Scott Tinsley, Frank Stanaitis and Tony Wilamoski. The hospital team will meet Sparky's club in the first game tomorrow night at the Airport at 7:30.

MIXED BOWLING DOUBLES

GUNIA TO PITCH

Manager Joe Hall of the I. N. U. reports that Joe Gunia, pitcher for the Jensen Jewelers of LaSalle last season, has been signed to pitch for the local club in the softball league here. Dixon fans will remember Gunia as one of the best mounders to hurl in the all-star attractions on Sunday nights here last season.

K. CKS TO PRACTICE TONIGHT

The Knacks ball club which invades Maytown Sunday afternoon for the third league game of the season, will hold a regular practice session tonight at 5:30 at Reynolds Field.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER

O. E. Rowley, president of the Dixon Athletic association, has announced that the organization will present a trophy this year to the player voted the most valuable to his team. Details of the voting have not yet been worked out.

FISH KICKED HIM

Add to your collection of fish stories this latest one which is running around the town today: Joe Lonergan, fishing above the dam last night, reached into the water to feel the temperature. A slight wiggle of his fingers and a sunfish jumped into his hands. Joe, so amazed by his ability as bait, wrapped his funny friend in a newspaper and stuck him in his pocket. En route downtown to show his "catch," he reports the blamed thing kicked him in the ribs.

DODGERS AND REDS TIED FOR NATIONAL LOOP LEAD

By JUDSON BAILEY

Associated Press Sports Writer

There was a time that the National League pennant chase looked like it might be a runaway. First the Brooklyn Dodgers won nine straight and looked hotter than a four-alarm fire. Then the Cincinnati Reds gave the appearance of gunning for a ten-game lead by July 4.

The result was inevitable, of course. The senior circuit is having its customary brawl for the lead and today the Dodgers and Reds are tied with 18 games won and eight lost.

The American League is having nearly as desperate a dispute for first place between the Boston Red Sox and Cleveland Indians. The New York Yankees have assumed winning ways, and finally have escaped the cellar.

The baseball situation, in short, still is as uncertain as the weather.

Depend on Derringer

Cincinnati's chances depend considerably on big Paul Derringer, who suddenly has changed from an exclamation point to a question mark. He has been knocked out of the box three times in his last five games and the only reason he lasted the route yesterday, as the New York Giants beat Cincinnati 6-4, was the great faith, hope and charity of Manager Bill McKechnie.

Johnny Rizzo hit a two-run homer to help give Derringer a three-run lead. But Paul permitted the Giants to rally for three runs in the sixth and three more in the eighth. This dropped him to four defeats and three victories for the spring. Carl Hubbell went his unceremonious way with seven-hit pitching for his third victory for the Giants.

Fat Freddy Fitzsimmons led the Dodgers to a 3-1 decision over the pitiful Pittsburgh Pirates, giving only six hits and pitching shutout ball after the first. Brooklyn won the game with two unearned runs in the fifth following a fumble by Arky Vaughan.

These were the only games the weather allowed in the National League. A scheduled night game between the Chicago Cubs and Philadelphia was reset for tonight.

Each Use Three Pitchers

Cleveland took first blood in its series with the Red Sox, winning 9-6 on home runs by Hal Trosky, Roy Weatherly and Ken Keltner. Three pitchers were used by each team and gave up a total of 31 hits. The triumph raised the Indians again within a game and a half of the Sox.

The Yankees continued their assault on all kinds of pitching (except good) with a 16-hit bombardment that wrecked the Detroit Tigers 8-2. Babe Dahlgren had a home run and four singles. Rookie Marvin Breuer held the Tigers to six hits.

This was the fifth victory in the last seven games for the world champions, and only a sudden winning streak by the Chicago White Sox kept them from jumping right up into sixth place.

The White Sox, who hadn't won a game in their own park until Monday, now have won three straight including a 10-1 triumph over the Philadelphia Athletics yesterday. Chicago piled up 18 hits while Lefty Ed Smith held his ex-mates to seven.

Another seven-hit pitching performance, this one by Southpaw Ken Chase, brought the Washington Senators a 9-2 victory over the St. Louis Browns. Chase was supported by a 13-hit offensive, all of which added up to send the Browns into the cellar.

First U. S. census taken in 1790 filled a pamphlet of 56 pages and cost $44,377.

DUKES TRIUMPH IN GOLF, TENNIS OVER ROCHELLE

Conference Matches At Princeton Will End Season June 1

Dixon high school's golf and tennis teams added new laurels to their spring sports' crown yesterday afternoon when Rochelle visitors were defeated in both contests.

In the golf matches at Plum Hollow the Dukes won, 14 to 1. Witzleb turned in the low card of the match with 39-35 for 74. DeGryse, his opponent, scored 38-38 for 76 and the afternoon's second low card. Witzleb's victory gave Dixon two points while Rochelle scored one.

McNichols defeated Beck to give the Dukes three more points. McNichols' score was 42-44 for 87 and Beck turned in a card of 44-48 for 92.

Buchanan scored three points with a card of 43-40 for 83 to defeat Stevenson with 45-42 for 87.

Hill of Dixon scored three points with a card of 43-42 for 87 over Binz with 49-49 for 98. Three more points were won by Marshall of Dixon with 46-45 for 91 to defeat Maxson with 49-50 for 99.

The Dukes will meet Princeton in a golf match here Saturday. Sterling here next Monday and Oregon's flashy outfit here next Wednesday. The final meet of the season will be the conference event at Princeton on June 1.

Tennis Matches

In the tennis matches yesterday the Dukes routed Rochelle 3 to 1. Wiennan defeated Hasleton, 6-1 and 6-0 in the singles. Smith eliminated Kepner 6-1 and 6-4. Warren Lapham was defeated 8-6 and 6-3.

In the doubles Kunde and Larson of Rochelle defeated Moser and McNamara, 7-5 and 6-4. Minihan and Sack thumped Bauer and Kepner, 1-6, 6-4 and 9-4 in a strongly contested match.

Both teams are coached by Fredolph Lundholm.

Five Records May Fall In Conference Meet At Sterling Friday Night

Cinders and sand will fly and bamboo poles will wobble tomorrow night in that supreme classic of the track season when the six high schools of the North Central conference meet at Sterling for their annual crack at the existing records.

No less than six of the present marks were set by state champions in the events, and others were made by those who placed well up in their specialties at the annual classic at Champaign. However, with favorable weather, five of the total 13 events may change hands in tomorrow night's competition.

Participating in the meet will be the picked performers from Dixon, Sterling, DeKalb, Belvidere, Mendota and Princeton high schools. Among them this year are several who threaten the records.

Coaches A. C. Bowers and Marvin Winger of Dixon have named 14 Dukes to represent the Purple. Listed according to the events in which they will participate, they are: Captain Albert Hoeman (high hurdles and pole vault); Leiland Shoaf (high and low hurdles); John Vaughn (low hurdles and broad jump); Howard Quick (100-yard dash and 220-yard run); Ellwood McCleary (high jump and 220-yard run); George Weigle (half mile and mile); Robert Edous (440-yard run); Robert Travis (440 and 880-yard runs); Dale Cramer (mile); Howard Mantich (shot put and discus); Robert Collins (shot put and discus); Carl Schnake (high jump and broad jump); Paul Hoeman (pole vault); and Celi Weidman (100-yard dash). Kelchner and Thompson are the managers who will make the trip.

Court of Honor

Miss Evelyn Worsley, senior student at Dixon, will represent the local school in the court of honor which presents awards to the winners in each event. One girl is selected from each of the conference schools.

Marks seriously threatened this year include the 880-yard run, shot put, discus, pole vault and the 880-yard relay. The record for the shot, the last Rochelle mark left in the books, is almost certain to be erased this year. Mantich of Dixon has been consistently heaving the weight over 50 feet all season and at Champaign last week he cut loose with the third longest toss in the history of the state classic when he put the iron ball 53 feet 2 1/2 inches for second place. Cunz of DeKalb, Seno of Mendota, Duffield of Princeton, Baker and Sier of Sterling should fight it out for places.

Mantich is also odds-on favorite to take the platter event with marks which have surpassed all others in previous years. Frank Seno, the defending champion, was forced to bow to the Dixon "strong man" in the dual meet here Tuesday.

Aims for New Mark

Albert Hoeman of Dixon, the third of the Dukes who seems certain to bring a new record to the Dixon camp, holds the present record in the conference with a vault of 11 feet 8 1/2 inches. In the dual meet with Mendota and in the qualifying tests at the state, Hoeman went 11 feet 3 inches into the air without knocking off the bamboo rod. Hoeman, co-champion at the state this year, seems almost certain to bring home another honor for the locals. This is Captain Hoeman's last high school appearance.

Both events of the 880-yard distance appear threatened. Coach James Trees of DeKalb is quoted as saying that with his quartet at full strength with the return of Plesley, he can take the highly touted Sterling team. The two teams are the class of the conference and should battle it out with Mendota as a strong contender.

In the 880-yard mile race is promised one of the closest and most thrilling events of the meet. At least five half miles will tangle for conference honors. Wolf of Sterling and Larkin of Mendota have both run in close to conference record time while Rich and Royalty of DeKalb both district point winners, and Schoenberger of Princeton can not be counted out. Belvidere is also rumored to have an outstanding half-miler.

DeKalb Star

These events are likely to see new champions while others may be crowned as surprise winners in other events. Alms, DeKalb sprint star and double district winner, looms as the big threat to Sterling Ridge and Penner in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Sterling's entries were place winners at Rock Island. Last year Belvidere sent Lloyd Houden who came unheralded and took the 100, giving rise to the belief that a darkhorse may capture the event.

Graduation of Irvie Wolf, Sterling's state and conference champion of last year, leaves the field wide open, but his record of 5:14 does not appear to be seriously threatened. Berlin of Princeton was last year's runner-up and looms as heir-apparent to Wolf's laurels. But his claim will be disputed by a field including Risley and Cook of DeKalb, Greaser of Mendota, Griesser and Hubbard of Sterling and Weigle of Dixon if Coach Bowers should choose to enter the latter in the event.

Mile Run

Ford of Sterling looms as the big threat in the mile run. He will be the target for a group of distance runners including Larkin of Mendota, Fitzgerald of DeKalb, Weigle of Dixon and several others.

In the high hurdles, H. Sawyer of DeKalb should battle it out with the two Sterling timber-toppers for the gold medal. Jim Brown and John Woodruff have both done the flight in good time, but Sawyer remained the favorite to win. Vaughn of Dixon may be in the point column.

The two Sawyer boys of DeKalb and Vaughn and Shoaf of Dixon seem to be the class of the field in the low hurdles. Wade of Sterling is a possibility should any of the top-seeded group fall by the wayside.

High Jump

The high jump is a wide open event with a field of several jumpers of about even ability pitted against each other. Whoever is hot will win. Ronan of DeKalb, Steadman and J. Woodruff of Sterling, McCleary and Schnake of Dixon and Whitmore of Mendota are all threats.

Another of those wide open events is the broad jump, and one which may decide the meet as the field is well balanced. Several boys have hit out around the 20 foot mark, including Breed and McDonald of Sterling, Crosier of DeKalb, Whitmore of Mendota and one Princeton jumper.

Since the javelin event was dropped from competition this year leaving Don Whitmore, the state and conference champion up in the air, the conference will stage an exhibition by Whitmore in an attempt to set a new National Interscholastic record. The present mark of 219 feet is held by Bob Peoples of Claassen high school of Stillwater, Okla. Whitmore will be presented with a special medal to commemorate the effort. An attempt to get an outstanding Iowa thrower to compete with Whitmore was blocked by the Iowa state meet being held this week. Two boys from the conference will probably furnish the opposition.

Preliminaries in the meet will be held starting at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon with the finals starting at 7:30 in the lighted stadium at Sterling.

Overlin Meets Garcia Tonight In Garden Ring

By SID FEDER

New York, May 23.—(AP)—Cefirino Garcia, Ken Overlin and a piece of the world middleweight championship are having a little get-together in Madison Square Garden at 8 (C. S. T.) tonight for some plain and fancy fistcluttfing, with a geography lesson thrown in.

Garcia is a Filipino from Los Angeles who has been fighting about halfway around the world. Challenging his right to a claim on the 160-pound throne is Ken Overlin, who was born in Illinois, lived in Norfolk and Washington and has been kicking around in rings the world over. They're to go for 15 rounds or less.

Just to make the geography lesson complete, the championship itself is no stationary target. There was a time when you could point a finger at one better and say "He's it." But now the title is sliced up like a barbecued pig. Garcia owns that part of it recognized in New York, California and a few way stations. The National Boxing association, functioning in some other parts of the country, bestows its blessings on Al Hosak of Seattle.

Mildewed Mess

Tonight's festivities should go a long way toward straightening out what is playfully known as the mildewed middleweight mess. Promoter Mike Jacobs has been mulling over a plan to pit tonight's winner against Hostak.

Garcia and his right hand bolo punch can go into action as 1 to 2 favorites to knock off the boxing skill Overlin has acquired in his years of campaigning. This one on the theory that Overlin, a "cutie" type of boxer, will toss a lot of annoying and baffling left hands at Garcia while staying out of the way of the Filipino's fatal right.

Garcia has held the New York California division of the championship since he flattened Freddie Apostoli here last October. In his only defense since then, he boxed over Glen Lee in Manila. Later he went to a draw with Henry Armstrong.

Overlin has taken on the heat of the 160-pounders on just about every continent. He has had some 173 fights and has lost less than ten.

Weekly Food and Marketing Letter by Mrs. George Thurn for Dixon Telegraph Readers

After the dreary "winter of our discontent" Decoration Day will be hailed with particular joy this year, as the official opening of the outdoor season. And not many weeks away is "Independence Day", a title that most hostesses consider is all wrong, terming "Labor Day" the only rightly-named holiday.

Although the busy hostess cannot dodge responsibilities, she can add to her independence by careful advance planning, and by using her modern, labor-saving equipment to fullest advantage. And she can determine firmly to simplify the holiday menu, whether the schedule calls for a picnic, a backyard grill, a porch supper, or a house party.

First on the program is an inventory of the emergency shelf, developing into a shopping list, which should include enough staples for an indoor meal, in case the weather proves unfriendly to outings. It is possible to plan many two-purpose dishes, which may be revised, or disguised, for home consumption on a chill, rainy holiday.

An ample supply of boiled potatoes will suit potato salad, or may be served hot in cream sauce, topped with grated cheese. Scalloped potatoes may be in the oven, ready to go steaming off in the car, or to be served as a hot dish at the porch party. Ever-welcome macaroni and cheese can be prepared in advance, ready for a last-minute trip to the oven.

At least one hot dish should be planned for all picnics and warm weather meals. Men unanimously endorse this policy.

Baked or boiled ham is a dependable standby for the holiday feasts. If the choice is chicken, that, too, can be ready for double-duty. Diced creamed chicken on toast, colorful with pimiento, will cheer stay-at-homers who had counted on a picnic with chicken salad. Assorted cheese meets holiday appetites.

Another day-ahead inspiration is a summer salad loaf, which uses diced cold meat, cooked vegetables and cream cheese in a gelatin base. This suggests many variations. For this loaf, as well as for gelatin salads and desserts, a supply of attractive aluminum molds will prove a boon, as well as simplifying service.

One holiday hostess is famed for her baked beans, flavory with seasonings and long, unhurried cooking. Still another features strawberry shortcake as her main dish, storing a generous supply of the crushed, sweetened berries in the refrigerator. Even the baking powder biscuit dough is ready in a covered bowl for the last-minute addition of milk. Or individual sponge, or layer cakes may be taken in advance as the base. A strawberry icebox cake, made with lady fingers, is a popular dessert.

Even though shortcake is not on the menu, tender hot biscuits can be whisked miraculously on the table by having the biscuit dough blended in advance. An agreeable variation is the addition of one-half cup grated American cheese. Sift two cups flour with four teaspoons baking powder and one-half teaspoon salt. Cut in four tablespoons shortening and the cheese, if desired. When ready to bake, add about three-fourths cup milk, quantity depending on whether the biscuits are to be rolled or dropped. Bake in a 450 degree oven, 10 to 12 minutes.

Homemade nut bread, all-bran honey bread, brown bread and date bars also brighten any holiday. Convenient rolls of icebox cookies should be made up several days in advance.

Colorful salads suit the Decoration Day mood. It is easy to wave the blues with red and white fruit salads, or the complete scheme may be attained by covering the porch table with deep blue crepe paper, using matching paper napkins.

Squares, or individual molds of tomato jelly, harmonize with that color scheme. They may be served on crisp greens, garnished with stuffed olives, or can be included on the supper plate with cold cuts. Pimiento adds ruddy interest.

For Decoration Day, or Fourth of July, grown-ups will rival the youngsters in getting fun from an inexpensive centerpiece of red, white and blue balloons. Blow up the balloons and heap them in the middle of the table, or run a cord to each plate attached to a small favor.

A novel decorative scheme employed red, white and blue balloons with an American flag. Cut a large flag from cardboard, mark out the design and pierce holes at intervals along the markings. Inflate the balloons, taking care that they all reach the same size, insert the nubs through the holes in the cardboard flag and tie on the wrong side.

Remember that there is festivity in the simplest meal when it is served out-of-doors. Holidays, like week-days, will be happier for the hostess who uses step-savers.

MINCED SALAD LOAF

Two tablespoons gelatin, one-half cup cold water, two cups tomato soup, one and one-half cups cold meat, diced, one cup peas, drained, three packages cream cheese, one tablespoon prepared mustard.

Soak the gelatin in cold water for five minutes. Heat the soup to the boiling point and dissolve the gelatin in it. Chill until the mixture thickens slightly, then fold in the peas and meat. Pour into a wet mold and chill until firm.

Whip the cheese with the mustard and a few drops of cream or top milk, mixing to spreading consistency. Unmold the loaf and frost top and sides with cheese. Garnish with crisp watercress and sliced cucumber. Or make cucumber cubes from the ends of unpeeled cucumbers. This entire loaf may be prepared the day before. Cooked vegetable assortments may be used, with diced celery. The mold may be lined with sliced stuffed olives and strips of pimiento.

TOMATO ASPIC

Here is a dependable recipe for a supply of flavory tomato aspic, which may be stored in the ice box and used as desired:

Combine four cups canned tomatoes, three-fourths teaspoon salt, one bay leaf, one-half cup chopped celery, one tablespoon chopped onion, four whole cloves, one tablespoon chopped parsley and a dash of pepper. Simmer slowly for ten minutes and strain. Soak two tablespoons gelatin in one-half cup cold water and add to the hot tomato mixture, together with one-fourth teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, stirring well. Chill until set.

STRAWBERRY ICEBOX CAKE. Twenty-four lady fingers, one quart strawberries, one cup sugar, three eggs beaten, one cup heavy cream, whipped, flavory.

Crush berries, saving eight large ones for garnish. Stir in sugar. Drain juice from pulp. Add beaten eggs to juice and cook on medium heat, stirring until mixture is thick. Chill in refrigerator, but do not allow to set firmly. Fold in whipped cream and berry pulp.

Arrange the split lady fingers in a mold or a loaf utensil lined with waxed paper, using three layers. Pour over each layer and chill until firm. Before serving, loosen waxed paper from sides and garnish the dessert with powdered sugar and strawberries.

FRUIT SALAD DRESSING

Three egg yolks, one-third cup sugar, one-third cup fruit juice, one teaspoon salt, one cup cream, whipped.

Mix the yolks, sugar, fruit juice and salt. Cook over hot water until thick. When cool, fold in the whipped cream.

DATE AND NUT KISSES

Two and one-half cups chopped dates, one and one-half cups chopped nuts, four egg whites, one cup sugar, one teaspoon vanilla or orange flavoring. Add a dash of salt to whites and beat until stiff and in little peaks. Blend in all other items and drop on baking sheet, fashioning each kiss into oblong shape. Bake at 330 degrees for 25 to 30 minutes.

CLOVERLEAF ROLLS

One cup boiling water, one-fourth cup sugar, one-half teaspoon salt, two tablespoons butter (or half butter and shortening), one cake compressed yeast, two tablespoons lukewarm water, one half teaspoon sugar, one egg, beat four cups sifted flour.

Mix boiling water, sugar, salt and shortening together. Dissolve yeast in the lukewarm water. Add one-half teaspoon sugar, and add to water mixture when it has cooled to a lukewarm. Add beaten egg. Sift in two cups of flour and beat well. Add remaining flour, one cup at a time, beating after each addition. Mix thoroughly to a smooth dough; knead slightly.

With a pair of kitchen scissors, dipped into flour, cut off small pieces of dough about the size of a hickory nut. Place each ball in the palm of the hand and roll tightly until round. Place three of these little rolls into each greased cup of a muffin pan. Brush top with melted butter; cover with a clean towel and let rise in a warm place until double in bulk, about two hours. Bake 12 to 15 minutes in a hot oven, 425 degrees.

ASPARAGUS FRITTERS

One and one-half cups flour, one-half teaspoon salt, three tablespoons baking powder, three-fourths cup milk, one egg, one cup cooked asparagus, cut in small pieces; shortening.

Mix and sift the dry ingredients. Add the milk gradually and then the well-beaten egg. Stir asparagus into the batter. Drop mixture by spoonfuls into deep shortening, heated 350 to 370 degrees. Cook until a delicate brown, remove and drain on paper. Delicious served with cheese sauce, or a tomato sauce.

INTERESTING SALADS

Reference to salads was made as far back as the time of Shakespeare, who wrote in Anthony and Cleopatra, "My Salad days, when I was green in judgment."

Parasol Salad: Wash the crisp parts of three heads of endive. Dry on towel and arrange on flat dish. Sprinkle with olive oil and chopped onion. Mix one tablespoon of honey with one-half teaspoon salt and a dash of white pepper. Pour over endive and serve.

Serve tomato aspic with chicken salad center, or a square of aspic on this salad. Garnish with pineapple slices. Hot cheese biscuits and coffee will round out this tempting meal.

Brooklyn's Hotel St. George features shredded lettuce, tomato wedges, watercress, sliced cucumbers and chopped beets, mixed in a bowl with a choice of salad dressings.

Slash large, firm tomatoes into four petals. Stuff the center with a mixture of grated celery, apple and green pepper. Top with balls of cottage cheese and a dressing made with olive oil, egg and lemon juice.

A Summer salad plate calls for one-fourth package dates, twelve cream cheese balls, one cup pineapple cubes, one cup cantaloupe balls, twelve segments canned or fresh grapefruit, lettuce and French dressing. Six servings.) The dates may be stuffed with nutmeats. Sprinkle cream cheese with paprika for color. Finely chopped mint may be sprinkled over grapefruit.

Orchard salad requires one-fourth cup mayonnaise, one tablespoon French dressing, one-half teaspoon salt, two cups each finely cut watercress and chopped green apples. Combine mayonnaise, French dressing and salt before adding greens and apples. Serves 4.

NEWS OF FOOD

A candy containing apples is the newest way this industry is trying to work itself out of difficulties experienced by the interruption of apple exports to Europe. Describing the new product to members of the American Chemical society, investigators said the candy is a combination of apples paste and skimmed milk, partly dried in a vacuum. It can be made for less than eight cents a pound.

Although the 1940 maple season was unusually late in getting under way, the sap was reported as "sweeter than last year" in many sections. Total maple production in New York State is surpassed only by Vermont. Statistics for 1939 show that Vermont produced 842,000 gallons of maple syrup, and New York ran a close second with 714,000 gallons. In maple sugar New York topped all states with 290,000 pounds. Vermont was second with 279,000 pounds. All other states trailed far behind.

Grapefruit seeds are just as big a problem in the citrus industry as they are in grapefruit on the breakfast table. The industry now is squeezing the seeds and extracting grapefruit seed oil, which when refined has a nutlike flavor highly valued for salad oils. Only one small plant is in production so far, but chemists expect the new field to grow. In the 1938-39 season, Florida canneries used 331,938 tons of grapefruit, and wound up with 15,601 tons of seeds. Ten tons of seeds are required to yield a ton of grapefruit seed oil.

The Peking News, established in China in the sixth century, is still being published today, now in its 1400th year.

Churchill Makes Brief Report on War Status Before Commons Today

London, May 23.—(AP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill, in a two minute war report, told the House of Commons today that there is heavy fighting in the English channel coastal area of Boulogne (H4), that Abbeville is in German hands and that British communications are endangered.

Abbeville, at the mouth of the Somme 12 miles from the English channel, was reached by the Germans Tuesday but French reports yesterday said the Nazi advance guard had been "driven out".

Churchill said that the implications of the situation were serious with the Germans threatening to derange the British expeditionary force's communications from the rear in Belgium.

General Maxime Weygand, commander-in-chief for the allies, Churchill said, is conducting operations involving the allied armies, "with a view to restoring and reconstituting the combined front".

Churchill spoke only two minutes in the briefest war statement yet made to the House of Commons.

"Q" OFFICIAL DIES

Galesburg, Ill., May 23.—(AP)—Warren E. Fuller, 65, of Chicago, assistant to the executive vice president of the Burlington railroad, died today in a hospital after a brief illness. Fuller had come here to attend a meeting.

Duff Cooper Sees U. S. People Being Aroused

London, May 23.—(AP)—Declaring that "opinion in the United States is rising", Alfred Duff Cooper, minister of information, said today that the events of "these last few weeks had done more for the cause of the allies in the United States than eight months of propaganda could have done".

Addressing a luncheon meeting of the English Speaking Union, the minister, who recently returned from a lecture tour in the United States said:

"We can leave it to the people of that great country (the United States) to decide for themselves what line they should take and when in the affairs of the civilized world".

Sen. Lucas Sees U. S. in 'Potential Danger'

Washington, May 23.—(AP)—A plea for a unified nation to prove to the world that "democracy can work and is working in record time" was made to the senate yesterday by Senator Lucas (D-Ill.), who said America was in a "potential danger".

Lucas said he was not speaking from "mere hysterical chatter" and added "America cannot overlook cold undisputable facts". He said this country was not the only one which hoped it would not have to meet "awful assaults of an unmerciful enemy".

Rumanian Roads and Trains Jammed With Soldiers Front-Bound

Bucharest, May 23.—(AP)—Rumanian railroads and highways were jammed today with nearly 300,000 reservists heading towards the frontiers as Rumania put into effect the greatest military concentration in her history.

The general staff yesterday had called up the reservists in a virtual general mobilization for "the highest state of preparedness" as diplomats here believed the government was apprehensive lest the Russian army move into Rumania's Bessarabia.

Military circles said today that the men would be given intensive training in the new methods of war. Meanwhile new measures were taken against possible "fifth column" activities.

Collector Asks Order to Save Cullen Estate

Chicago—(AP)—A petition was filed in probate court by Carter H. Harrison, collector of internal revenue, asking that assets of the estate of Arthur R. Cullen, wealthy grain speculator who died June 21, 1936, be conserved.

Harrison said he was seeking to satisfy the "largest possible portion" of the government's claim of more than $1,000,000 in back income taxes and penalties for 1929, 1930 and 1933. Present value of the estate has been listed at $416,285 by the administrator.

Brisk Fight for Indiana's G. O. P. Delegates Raging

Indianapolis, May 23.—(AP)—Brisk bidding for presidential nomination support from Indiana's 28 delegates to the Republican national convention today overshadowed rivalry among aspirants for the state ticket to be chosen at the party's convention tomorrow.

The national convention delegates—two from each of the 12 congressional districts—will be selected tonight by the 1,937 state delegates in district caucuses. Selections will be submitted for ratification by the convention, which also will name four delegates-at-large.

Besides picking the Hoosier delegation to the Philadelphia convocation June 24, the state convention will nominate candidates for United States Senator, governor and nine other state offices.

Representatives of three presidential aspirants have opened headquarters in a downtown hotel and are attempting to line up support for Thomas E. Dewey, New York district attorney, and Senators Robert A. Taft of Ohio and Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan.

Willkie Workers Busy
Willis X. Covall of Indianapolis, chairman of the Indiana Wendell Willkie-for-President organization, said his group was circulating petitions requesting the national convention to nominate the Indiana-born utility executive. Willkie, now a resident of New York, spent his early years in Elwood.

"The sentiment for Willkie is growing by leaps and bounds," observed Covall, "but we're not trying to get Willkie-instructed delegates now."

A three-way contest for the senatorial nomination is in full swing. Raymond E. Willins, Angola publisher and 1938 candidate, is vying with Walter F. Bossert, Liberty lawyer, and Straube E. Wiseman of New Albany, a newcomer to state politics.

Six candidates, all lawyers, are in the field for the governorship nomination. Governor John W.

Bricker of Ohio will be temporary convention chairman as the keynote speaker.

GETS ATHLETIC AWARD
Annapolis, Md., May 23.—(AP)—Midshipman Allen A. Bergner of Kankakee, Ill., will be awarded the sword given annually to the midshipman who has excelled in athletics for three years. Academy officials have announced.

Bergner holds letters in lacrosse and boxing and was captain of the football and wrestling teams last season. The award will be made at ceremonies June 3.

NO BLACKOUT
Kearney, Neb., May 23.—(AP)—It could only happen in America. A blackout was ordered here as a publicity stunt for a Red Cross drive, but housewives protested it would interfere with operation of electrical refrigerators.

BY TWO MILLIONS
Borup Minn., May 23.—(AP)—In 1939 this village of 200 saw its population increased by two millions, the census count revealed today.

NOTED SURGEON DIES
St. Louis.—(AP)—Dr. William T. Coughlin, longtime head of the department of surgery at St. Louis University school of medicine and a well-known writer on neuro and plastic surgery, died last night at the age of 67.

Ottawa became capital city of the Dominion of Canada in 1858 by order of Queen Victoria. Before that the Canadian capital city was Montreal.

4,000 Cadets Pass in Review at Ill. University Today

Urbana, Ill., May 23.—(AP)—Nearly 4,000 cadets in the University of Illinois reserve officers training corps brigade passed in review today before Lieut. Gen. Stanley A. Ford, commander of the Sixth Corps Area, and President Arthur Cutts Willard.

It was the annual military day at the university where by the terms of the Morrill land grant act military science and tactics are required subjects for two years for all undergraduate men, except a few specifically exempted. Two additional years are optional.

Among the cadets were 534 men of this advanced course of whom 245 seniors will be commissioned second lieutenants in the officers reserve corps.

In the reviewing stand with Gen. Ford and President Willard was Maj. Gen. George A. Lynch, Army chief of infantry.

Edmund L. Dubois, Champaign.

was installed as cadet colonel for the coming year. He succeeded Walter T. Morey of Decatur. Fifteen awards for proficiency were presented to outstanding cadets by leaders of patriotic societies and the university.

Col. Robert G. Kirkwood is commandant and is assisted by a staff of 26 regular army officers. Equipment and horses are cared for by 48 enlisted men from the regular army.
